  - 1) The bidder who shall quote the least rate for all the items for desired quantity as mentioned in the BoQ/ Financial bid will be declared and finalized as the successful bidder.

2) In case that, if no single bidder quote the minimum rates (amongst all bidder) for all the items then the following criterion will be adopted for finalizing the bidder as the successful bidder for the award of the work:

The bidder who shall quote the overall minimum amount for the desired quantity as per BoQ, shall be considered for further evaluation. The above "Selected Bidder" shall be called for item-wise negotiation of rate. The item wise rates quoted by other competitive bidders will be taken as reference and the above "Selected Bidder" if accepts to adopt the least rate for all the items quoted by different bidder, then the "selected Bidder" shall be the successful bidder for the work under this tender.

If the 'Selected Bidder' denies to accept the offer as above then the bidder in second position will be called upon for negotiation to accept such offer. The process shall be followed till all the bidders are given equal opportunity to accept or reject the offer.

In case no bidder accepts to adopt the minimum rate as above for all the items then following steps will be adopted.

In the second round of negotiation, the first selected bidder shall be offered to accept the minimum quoted rates for at least 75% of the items and the bidder will be declared to be successful if the offer is accepted by the bidder otherwise the chance will be given to other bidders.

30 Dispute & Court Jurisdiction: In case of any ambiguity in terms & conditions of the tender during and after bidding process, then the decision of the Vice Chancellor of GGV shall be final and binding on the Bidder. In case, the bidder moves to court for favour and justice then the court jurisdiction shall be at Bilaspur (C.G.) headquarter only.
