CONFERENCE REPORT

The National Symposium-cum-Workshop on Biodiversity and its Utilization and Conservation in Central India (In Blended Mode) took place at the Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya (A Central University), Koni, Bilaspur, Chhattisgarh on 21-22 February 2022. The event was organized for participants to exchange their experiences in the field of Biodiversity research for a dynamic of productive collaboration on the one hand. On the other hand, the participation of eminent national researchers in this symposium provided an opportunity to exchange and update the state of knowledge and research approach and thus, opened multiple opportunities for collaboration with Central Indian researchers. The broad objective of this event was to bring all interested in research in central India on a single platform to share their experiences
