A Brief Abstract of the Event (Maximum 500 Words):

A three-day entrepreneurship awareness camp was organized by Incubation Centre-GGV in association with EDII, Ahmedabad from 13-15 December 2021 at GGV with the following basic objectives,

- Impart and improve soft skills in successfully initiating, growing, and diversifying a business venture in new and upcoming areas.
- Introduce participants to the best practices, successes-failures, opportunities, and constraints in managing their existing enterprises.
- Provide the tools and theoretical outline to sustain the business enterprise.
- To prepare the participants for accepting totally unanticipated risks of business for a long time after such training & development.
- To enable the participants to relate their product and industry to the environment; to find what is significant in it and to take it into account in their assessment and actions.
- To strengthen their obsession for integrity, openness, and fulfillment with the law.

This was the first program in association with EDII, Ahmadabad, and was organized under the MOU signed between GGV and EDII. Total 55 students registered for the camp. A registration fee of Rs. 500 was charged to the participants. A registration kit and working lunch were provided to the registered participants during the three days EAC. The program was fully funded by GGV. This Entrepreneurship Awareness Camp was specially designed for students of GGV and budding & aspiring entrepreneurs locally. The participant group consisted of both male and female students, research scholars, teachers and budding local entrepreneurs. To make this program impact-making and result-oriented, a batch of 55 aspiring entrepreneurs was formed. The duration of the programme was 3 days (cumulative input of 18 Hrs. of training inputs was provided in the entire training duration).
