

MINUTES OF MEETING

A meeting of Board of Studies (BoS) of Department of Forestry, Wildlife & Environmental Sciences, GGV was held on 29/06/2015, Monday at 03:00 PM in the Department of Forestry.

Following members of the committee were present.

Dr. Rashmi Agarwal	-	Chairperson	-	Present
Prof. N. P. Todaria	-	Member (External)	-	Not Present
Prof. S S Singh	-	Member	-	Present
Dr. S. S. Dhuria	-	Member	-	Present
Dr. Garima Tiwari	-	Member	-	Present

The following faculty members of the Department were also invited for the participation and discussion.

Dr. S. C. Tiwari	-	Associate professor	-	Present
Dr. K. K. Chandra	-	Associate professor	-	Present

Prof. N. P. Todaria, External Expert was invited on 11/06/15 to join meeting by sending email but he expressed his inability to join the meeting. Further a soft copy of revised syllabus as per guidelines of Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) was also e-mailed to him on 18/06/15 for his expert comment. (All the copies of mail are enclosed)

Following recommendations were made during the meeting:

01. B.Sc. Forestry (4 Years / 8 Semesters) & M. Sc. Forestry & Environmental Sciences (2 Years /4 Semesters) syllabus has been discussed, restructured and finalized as per the need of Choice Based Credit System.
02. The entire syllabus of both programs were revised and made as per Choice Based Credit System.
03. B.Sc. Forestry program will have a total of 184 credit points & M.Sc. Forestry program will have 98 credit points in total.
04. B.Sc. Forestry syllabus will have 40 Papers up to VII Semester and VIII semester will have following training programme:
 - 01-Forest Institutes and Industrial Visits,
 - 02-Forestry Operations (Working Experience)
 - 03- Socio-economic surveys –village attachment
 - The students will prepare the report based on the above trainings and evaluation will be done by one External Examiner and two Internal Examiners.
05. There will be one Student Project in B.Sc. Forestry program which will be allotted in III semester and will be evaluated by a pannel of two teachers of the Department at the end of IV semester.

SS Singh
29.6.15

06. M.Sc. Forestry & Environmental Sciences syllabus will have 18 Papers up to III Semester and IV semester have following :

- 01-Field Training (Attachment with State Forest Department)
- 02- Industrial Training
- 03- Computational Skills
- 04-Student Project

- The students will prepare the report based on the above trainings and evaluation will be done by one External Examiner and two Internal Examiners.
- Student Project will be evaluated by a pannel of two teachers of the department.

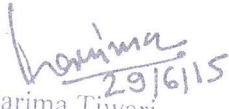

07. There will be two specializations i.e. (1) - Forest Genetic Resources (FGR) & (2) - Forest Management (FM) which will be offered to the students as per their choice in the IIIrd Semester of M.Sc. Programme.

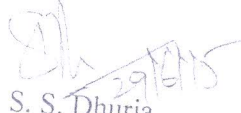

08. Minimum passing mark for each Theory Papers, Practical, Student Project and Trainings program will be 40%.

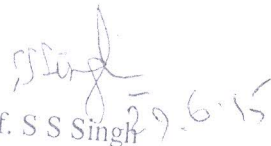

09. Computation of SGPA and CGPA will be done as per the UGC Guideline. A copy is attached herewith.

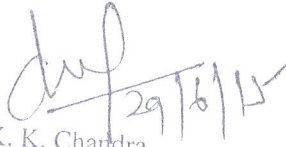

10. Credit details, Mark distribution and course content have been mentioned in the syllabus of B.Sc. Forestry and M.Sc. Forestry & Environmental Sciences Programme.

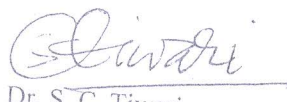

11. The study tour to forest operation sites, forest nursery, wildlife habitat and plantation sites will be conducted as per the requirement in each semester.

Dr. Garima Tiwari
(Member)

Dr. S. S. Dhuria
(Member)

Prof. S S Singh
(Member)

Dr. K. K. Chandra
(Invited Member)

Dr. S. C. Tiwari
(Invited Member)

Dr. Rashmi Agarwal
(Chairperson)