

Report on Constitution Day Celebration on 26th November 2021 (Friday)

School of Studies: Social Science

Department: Political Science & Journalism

Topic of Discourse chosen: Reading of the Preamble to the Constitution of India at Departmental Level

Number of Participants: Students: 25

Faculty Members: 10

Non-teaching staff: Nil

Time of Program: 9:30 AM-10:15 AM

Report of the Program

The Constitution Day jointly organised by Department of Political Science and Department of Journalism. It was celebrated in virtual mode through the Google Meet on 26 November, 2021 at 9:30 AM. The programme was conducted under the chairperson Dr. Gopa Bagchi, Head of the Department, Department of Journalism. Dr. Santwana Pandey, Assistant Professor of Political Science Department welcomed the program's chairperson and other participants. Dr. Amit Kumar Gupta has read the Preamble to the Constitution of India. Dr. Anupama Saxena, Head of the Department of Political Science has delivered a lecture on the importance of dignity of individuals under the Preamble of the Constitution in the program organized on the occasion of Constitution Day. On this occasion, Dr. Gopa Bagchi, Head of the Department of Journalism, delivered a lecture on the importance of freedom of individuals under Article 19 mentioned in the Constitution. Along with this, she has highlighted the important role of Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar in the making of the constitution. On this occasion, Dr. Amita, assistant teacher of the Journalism department, highlighted the important role of Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar in the making of the constitution and the dedication of people to Ambedkar ji in present times. All the teachers and students take active participation in programme. The programme was conducted by the Dr. Amit Kumar Gupta. The meeting end with the formal vote of thanks given by Dr. Ram Babu, Assistant Professor Department of Political Science.

