Office Memorandum

On recommendations of the Deans of Schools and its competent approval, following is notified hereby-

- 1. For promotion policy from one Semester to another
 - a. Any student admitted in a programme shall be promoted in the next semester only after successfully appearing in all courses offered in that semester, subject to the eligibility for appearing in the end semester examination.
 - b. In any semester a student can opt maximum 40 credits to appear in the end semester examination including those of current semester as well as of previous semesters backlog.
 - c. Even though the students will be promoted or allowed to be promoted in the next semester without clearing all the courses of previous semesters, the result of the last/final semester will be declared only after the clearance of all backlog papers/courses.
 - d. Any student will have the opportunity to clear the backlog of previous semesters subject to the two conditions-
 - i. That the total credit in which the student is appearing in the end semester exam should not exceed 40 credits in any case.
 - ii. The backlog of even semester courses will be cleared with even semesters and odd semester courses will be cleared with odd semesters. Accordingly, the backlog credits will be opted.
 - e. The maximum duration in which a student can clear the backlog is the maximum duration of that programme as notified by the University from time to time.
 - f. Students opting to appear in the backlog courses in any semester have to fill the additional examination from along with the prescribed fee as notified by the University from time to time.
- 2. Suitable amendment in the ordinances may be drafted by the respective Deans as soon as possible as mentioned above. However, the ordinances of other programmes governed by any regulatory bodies such as Pharmacy, Education, and Physical Education programmes etc. may also be reviewed by the respective Deans and any amendment if needed may also be drafted.
- 3. Following provisions have been made for the students regarding their special ATKT permission for those fourth semester student who have failed in the 4th Semester Examination of the academic session 2021-222 and are not having opportunity to clear the backlog before 6th Semester Examination and thus have to face year back-

"Under the existing Ordinance provisions, it will not be possible for the affected students to get promotion in the 6th Semester without clearing the backlog of 4th Semester of Academic Session 2021-22. Further, as per the existing ordinances, they cannot clear this backlog before the 6th Semester Examination of Academic Session 2022-23. And therefore, approved that in addition to appropriate modification in the respective ordinances as proposed above, the 4th Semester students of the Session 2021-22 may be given one time opportunity of appearing in the special ATKT examination to be conducted after completions of appropriate number of remedial classes by the respective departments. However, this should be done before the 6th Semester examination of Academic Session 2022-23.

Above provisions and arrangements are hereby notified for information and further necessary action to all concerned please.
