About the University

Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya (GGV) is located in Bilaspur, Chhattisgarh. It was first established by an act of the State Legislative Assembly in the year 1983, as Guru Ghasidas University. Later in the year 2009, it was upgraded as a Central University by Government of India, under Central Universities Act 2009, No. 25 of 2009. GGV is accredited as B+ by NAAC. It is situated in a socially and economically challenged area, the university is appropriately named to honour the great Satnami Saint Guru Ghasidas Ji, who championed the cause of the downtrodden and waged a relentless struggle against all forms of social evils and injustice prevailing in the society. It covers almost the entire spectrum of the higher education requirements of the nation. It has several University Teaching Department (UTDs) in its campus.

About the Department

The Department of education was established in 2007. The Department of Education enjoys a special privilege as well as a sense of responsibility. We are aiming to make the department as one of the most advanced and fully equipped research centre in the region therefore; research is another matter of priority. The Department has academically rich with experienced faculty members and is providing departmental library and free internet facility to all students along with other facilities. At present, the department offers Ph.D., M.Ed., B.Ed., B.Ed. Special Education Learning Disability and B.Ed. Special Education Hearing Impairment programmes.

About the workshop

Need for ensuring Inclusion and least-restrictive environment has produced a multi tasking superhero in the teaching profession. The "speducator" is a special educator who deals with the students with special needs in the general education environment. Such teachers must possess a vast knowledge of the core curriculum for multiple grade levels as his/her students enter mainstream educational settings. The general education teacher needs to be prepared to make accommodations and adaptations to his or her lesson plans so that each student has an opportunity to learn the material. The Curricular Adaptations programme is important for the teacher educators/teachers of the special needs children to adapt teaching material, using effective teaching and good behavior techniques that allows her to transform into a "teacher who can reflect and give a new meaning to her pedagogical practice, in order to meet the diversity of her student body". The major focus of this workshop is special educators/ teacher educators can make appropriate lesson plan, teaching learning material and classroom strategies according to the need of special needs children by the knowledge of Curricular Adaptations.

Objective of the Workshop

The major focus of this workshop is to provide the knowledge and skill regarding how to do Curricular Adaptation for special needs children in various aspects. The participants will know about the teaching strategies, Teaching Learning Material, behavior management for the special needs children by this programme.
