Item. Regarding compliance of order dated 30.01.2015 of the Honbl'e High Court of Chhattisgarh, passed in the case WP(C) No. 111/2015 titled as Shri Sanidhya Gupta Vs Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya, Bilaspur and others.

The Executive Council members perused the order dated 30.01.2015 passed by the Honbl'e High Court of Chhattisgarh in the case WP(C) No. 111/2015 titled as Shri Sanidhya Gupta Vs Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya, Bilaspur and others and discussed the matter at length.

The Executive Council expressed its concern about such happenings and alleged involvement of some students in such incidences. The nature of this case is seriously related to the morality of students and society as well, and it cannot be considered sympathetically. The Executive Council perused the documents and considered the facts of the case and;

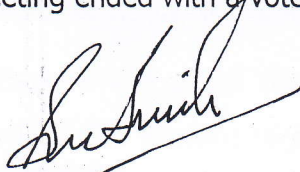

RESOLVED that, the examination of Shri Sanidhya Gupta (seventh semester of session 2014-15, B.Tech-Industrial and Production Engineering) in which he appeared, even when his short attendance was not condoned, be cancelled.

RESOLVED FURTHER that, the appeal dated 19.01.2015 filed by Shri Sanidhya Gupta under section 35 of Central Universities Act 2009 be rejected and the order number 195 dated 22.12.2014, passed by the Dean, School of Engineering and Technology, be upheld. Hence Shri Sanidhya Gupta can not be permitted to attend the classes of eight semester of session 2014-15.

RESOLVED STILL FURTHER that, to maintain the equality and rationality of the case the admission given to Shri Naval Verma, in the B.Tech. Chemical Engineering, in seventh semester, of session 2014-15, is hereby cancelled and consequently his related seventh semester examination be also cancelled. Further, the admission given to Shri Naval Verma in eight semester of session 2014-15 is being cancelled.
