About the University

Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya, a Central University established by an Act 2009 of the Parliament, was originally established as State University by an Act of the State Legislative Assembly of the then undivided Madhya Pradesh on 16th June 1983. Situated in the socially and economically challenged area, the Vishwavidyalaya is appropriately named to honour the great Satnami Saint Guru Ghasidas (born in 17th Century). The Vishwavidyalaya is a residential Institution. The lush green sprawling campus of the Vishwavidyalaya spread over an area of approx. 655 acres is located 5 km away from the city of Bilaspur. The Vishwavidyalaya aims at disseminating and advancing knowledge by providing instructional and research facilities in various branches of learning.

How to reach

Bilaspur city is well connected via rail and roadways. It is situated on Mumbai-Howrah main train route. It is about 110 Km. away from Raipur city, the capital of Chhattisgarh State. Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya is situated at village Koni and is about 11 Km away from Bilaspur Railway Station on Ratanpur Road. Frequent bus service is available to reach the University campus.
