

BA (Hons.) Political Science (Ist Semester) Examination 2014

Basic Principles of Political Theory: Part I

Paper – I

AU-6722

Maximum Marks – 60

Model Answer

Q.N.1 (i) a, (ii) Political Science, (iii) b, (iv) a, (v) b, (vi) c, (vii) d, (viii) b, (ix) b, (x) a

Q.N.2 Definition of Political Science, scope of Political Science such as Political Theory, Political Institutions, Political Dynamics, International Institutions, Public Administration etc.

Q.N.3 Introduction, meaning of origin of state, family as the origin of state, detail description of patriarchal and matriarchal theories.

Q.N.4 Introduction, definition of Political Science, its relations with economics – closeness and differences, its relations with law – closeness and differences

Q.N.5 Introduction, definition of sovereignty, its different features like absoluteness, permanence, non-transferability, universality and indivisibility; kinds of sovereignty like de jure and de facto; legal political and popular

Q.N.6 Introduction, definition of power, features of power, meaning authority, legitimacy, different means of transformation of power into authority such as traditional, charismatic and rational-legal

Q.N.7 Introduction, different perspectives of state, social democratic perspective of state and the nature and functions of state according to it

Q.N.8 Introduction, definition of state, different elements of state such as population, territory, government and sovereignty