

PAPER CODE: AU-6077

M.A. FIRST SEMESTER POLITICAL SCIENCE

Paper – III, Title-- International Relations: theory and major concepts

Teacher: Dr. Ram Pratap Yadav

SECTION-A

Q.No.1(one word questions)

- i- Chris Brown
- ii- He was an Athenian historian, political philosopher and wrote a book ‘Peloponnesian War’.
- iii- Realism
- iv- Kenneth N. Waltz
- v- This term was coined by John Williamson to refer to a set of specific economic policy prescription based on Washington DC based financial institutions i.e. IMF/WTO/WB
- vi- 1953
- vii- Pope Francis
- viii- Geopolitical
- ix- Global Counter Terrorism Network
- x- 26 December 1991 after the declaration of the dissolution of USSR

SECTION-B

Q.No.2

- Less development of East Pakistan
- Operation by Pak(operation searchlight) army to contain the movement runs by Bengali’s
- Awami League clears majority in 1971 election.
- Indian government intervention on humanitarian ground.

Q.No.3

- NAM as a confidence booster
- For a global consensus on terrorism
- For a equitable world
- Putting developing countries grievances towards global platform
- It helps for Indian diplomacy

Q.No.4

- Definition of multiculturalism
- Diversity and Diaspora
- Ethnicity and preservation of sectarian values
- Ideal of 'one world' and 'millennium goals'
- Bhikhu Parekh/V.S.Nypaul on multiculturalism
- The time of globalization/informational age and multiculturalism

Q.No.5

Elements of national power

- Geography/demography/economy/technology/diplomacy/leadership etc.

Q.No.6

- Distinction between realism and neorealism
- Anarchism in neorealism
- Kenneth N. Waltz's profoundness
- John Meirshmeir/ Farid Zakaria on neorealism

Q.No.7

Growing importance of Africa

- Africa as a quest for power among powerful nations
- Richness of the natural resources
- Geostrategic location
- A continent without lethal/nuclear weapons
- Number of the participants in UN is 54/can be deciding for any voting
- Almost all nations are least developed and there's a future of becoming developing

Q.No.8

- Describe the term international relations, distinguish it with international politics and differ with world or global politics/ affairs
- History starts with Woodrow Wilson chair/ Abbeysmith college/London school of economics etc.