

Key to Answer
B.A. (Hon's) (Fifth Semester) 2014
AU-6715
Paper- Sixth
(American Literature - I)

Section: A (Multiple Choice Questions)

1. Mark Twain
2. Mississippi
3. C
4. Ralph Waldo Emerson
5. 18th Century
6. True
7. A
8. A
9. Leaves of Grass 1st Edition
10. Democracy

Section: B: (Descriptive Questions)

2. (i). (a) These lines are taken from Whitman's To a Locomotive where the poet describes about the beauty of machine as a symbol of progress.
- (b) These lines are taken from Walt Whitman's Faces where the poet addresses to the different kinds of faces of the people which he sees in his daily life.
- © These lines are taken from R.W. Emerson's Each and all where the poet appraises the beauty of nature and of all.
- (d) These lines are taken from the pose of Emerson's The Over Soul describes how the purity in thoughts helps the Soul to attain the Over Soul.
- (ii). One should deal about the description and nature of Huck's.
- (iii). In this question, one should deal about the ending of the novel as convincing as it ends with the note of free from slavery.
- (iv) One should focus on all the belief in the supreme soul and supremacy of truth according to Emerson.
- (v) One should focus on how Emerson presents that all are same, and depicts that unity of oneself will lead to unity of all the things in the world.
- (vi) One should throw light on the responsibility of Whitman as a poet in all the fields he dealt with like Democratic thought , Use of Language, Humanity towards Common People, National Pride, Use of theme of Science and technology.
- (vii) In this question, one should critically write about the work The leaves of Gras as a collection of poems in which Whitman shared all his experience after American Revolution and Civil War.