

Model Answers

M.A. (Third Semester) Examination, 2015

Public Administration

Paper: XIII, AV-8076

Title of the Paper: Public Administration and Governance

Section - A

- ① (I) d, Centralised Governance (II) b, 2002 (III) a, David Easton
(IV) Centralised. (V) b, 1989 (VI) d, Brundtland Report
(VII) a, d, Herbert Simon (VIII) a, Vincent Ostrom
(IX) a, Manila (X) b, Andhra Pradesh

Section - B

- ② Introduction, Significance of Public administration with reference to Minnowbrook conference - III to be discussed, conclusion.
- ③ Introduction, different approaches of public administration in shaping structure and functions in administration to explain in this answer, conclusion.
- ④ Introduction, write what are the administrative reforms in post independence, India period taken towards achieve good governance, conclusion.
- ⑤ Introduction, changing pattern of reform in governance in the post-liberalisation phase in India to be examined in this answer, conclusion.
- ⑥ Introduction, in your opinion, how Lokpal a major step towards establishing a good governance to be discussed, conclusion.
- ⑦ Your understanding of E-Governance and its impact in promoting growth of society to be discussed.
- ⑧ Introduction, International agencies and its role in promoting governance in India to be discussed, conclusion.

B. Ramakrishna