

Model Answer

AS 2070

MA (Third Semester Examination , 2013)

Political Science

Paper : XV (Group B)

Nation Building and National Integration

SECTION -A

Question 1

(i) a. Failure of the Third Five Year Plan. b. Crisis in agriculture. c. Serious food shortage

(ii) XI Plan

(iii) Regionalism describes situations in which different religious or ethnic groups with distinctive identities coexist within the same state boundaries, often concentrated within a particular region and sharing strong feelings of collective identity. It often involves ethnic groups whose aims include independence from a national state and the development of their own political power.

(vi) Maharashtra , Andhra Pradesh, Tamil Nadu, etc

(v) a. Issue of Urdu somehow acquired communalist nature. b. Urdu speaking population was scattered in different geographical regions c. Tough Language d. Popularity of Hindi etc

(vi) 22

(vii) Jharkhand, Utrakhand, Chhattisgarh

(viii) A regional party is a political party with its base almost entirely in a single region , which mostly participate in the elections only within one state.

(ix) The Telangana movement refers to a group of related political activities organized to support the creation of a new state of Telangana, from the existing state of Andhra Pradesh in South India.

(x) Bodh Gaya, Bihar

Sectiop- B

Question 2. Students are supposed to write the importance of National Movement in Nation Building

- a. Developed an approach of Independent economy
- b. Developed the notion of People's Sovereignty
- c. Developed the notion of Representative Government
- d. Developed the notion of Rights of Citizen
- e. Developed the notion of Freedom of Expression
- f. Developed the notion of Conducive Environment for the growth and development of Minority etc

Students may mention the different movements during the pre independence era.

Question 3. Students are supposed to write the Role of Mahatma Gandhi in Nation Building

- a. In uniting the nation
- b. In developing a secular state
- c. In Developing a state based on the principle of Ahimsa etc

Question 4. Students are supposed to describe the harmful effects of communalism while giving examples from Indian context like communalism as a. a threat to nations' unity, b. negative impact on economy c. negative impact on social harmony etc.

Question 5. Students are supposed to describe the Role of Planning Commission in Nation Building

- a. By promoting inclusive growth
- b. By prioritising the interests of disadvantaged sections of the society
- c. By providing a common frame of development for the whole nation etc

Question 6. Students are supposed to write the genesis of RTI , its objectives, importance and outcome with some examples.

Question 7. Students are supposed to write briefly on, Election Reforms , The CBI, Lokayuktas, Lokpal ,RTI , etc.

Question 8. Students are supposed to describe the following points

- a. Division of Labour
- b. Hierarchy
- c. Written Documents
- d. Rules
- e. Salaries
- f. Impersonality
- g. Rationality
- h. Neutrality etc

Question 9. Students are supposed to write in brief the duration of XII Five Year Plan , its objectives, targets and importance.