

AS-3012

B.A.LL.B (First Semester) Examination, 2013

Five Year Integrated Course

Political Science

(Concepts, Theories and Ideologies)

MODEL ANSWER

Section – A

1.(i) (a) regarded as the father of Political Science,

(ii) (a) was normative in nature

(iii) (c) Divine Origin Theory,

(iv) (a) social,

(v) d) Maitland.

(vi) (a) particular to general,

(vii) (b) interest articulation

(viii) (b) False

(ix) a) political right,

(x) (b) conscious public opinion

(xi) a) right of citizens,

(xii) (a) Liberal theory of democracy,

(xiii) (c) unlimited power of the ruler,

(xiv) (b) religious rights

(xv) (c) religious unity,

Section – B

The student should cover the points mentioned against each question

2. Definition of history and political science, how both are dependent on each other for their subject matter, history is the root and political science is the fruit, etc.

3. Meaning of structural functional approach and input in it, the different elements of input process and their role in the political system,

4. Elements of state, meaning of population, size and quality of population

5. Origin of state, description of force theory, importance of force theory, critical remarks

6. Meaning of Social Justice, need of social justice, etc.

7. Meaning of Dictatorship of Proletariat, description of this concept, etc.

8. Meaning of Elite Theory of Democracy and how it operates, criticism

Section – C

The student should cover the points mentioned against each question

9. Definition of state, different theories of origin of state and defects in those theories, the different elements of evolutionary theory such as kinship, religion, force, political consciousness, etc.; conclusion

10. Meaning and definition of equality; social equality, economic equality, political equality, and their need, conclusion

11. Meaning and definition of democratic socialism, how it combines democracy with socialism and how it is different from democracy and socialism, methods of democratic socialism, criticism, conclusion

A.N.Panda