About the Conference

The International Conference on "Mapping Sustainable Cultural Heritage Through Textile Cartography and Other Forms of Art and Culture" aims to explore the intersections of textiles, cartography, and cultural heritage. This event highlights the importance of sustainable practices in preserving and representing cultural identities through various artistic expressions. At the conference, various sessions will focus on the role of textile art in mapping cultural landscapes. Presenters will share case studies illustrating how textiles can narrate the stories of places and people. For instance, a presentation might detail how traditional weaving techniques in a specific region convey environmental knowledge and social practices, thus mapping the relationship between culture and nature. The topics to be covered (but not limited to) in this conference are given below:

- The Art and Science of Textile Cartography
- Cultural Preservation through Textile Cartography:
- Textile Techniques and Cultural Narratives
- Art Education as a Tool for Sustainable Development
- Textile cartography as a pedagogical approach
- Cross-Cultural Perspectives in Textile Mapping
- Environmental Impact of Textile Production and Use
- Community Engagement, Collaborative Projects, and Participatory Mapping
- Digital Innovations in Textile Cartography and Education
- Assessment and Evaluation of Textile Cartography Projects
- Digital Integration and Interactive Textile Maps
- Integrate textile art and cartography into educational curricula
- SDG & Teacher Training
- Textile Cartography and Indigenous Knowledge Systems
- Policy Implications of Textile Cartography in Sustainable Development
- Economic Empowerment through Textile Heritage
- Tribe Women Entrepreneurship and Textile Cartography
- Textile Cartography in the Digital Age

Renowned for its commitment to academic excellence and research, GGV cultivates a dynamic learning environment with state-of-the-art facilities, a diverse student population, and an emphasis on holistic development.

About the Bilaspur City

Bilaspur is situated on the banks of river Arpa which has its history in the holy books. The state capital, Raipur, is 111 kilometers from Bilaspur. It is the second largest city in Chhattisgarh and is known as NYAYADHANI because of the High Court of the state (largest High Court of Asia) being situated here. The South East Central Railway (SECR) Zone and South-Eastern Coal Fields Limited (SECL) have their Headquarters in this city. The city is surrounded by many historical places and temples; Siddha Peeth Maa Mahamaya at Ratanpur and Amarkantak which is the origin of river Narmada, life line river of Madhya Pradesh. Bilasa Devi Kevat Airport Bilaspur (10 Kms) and Swami Vivekanand Airport Raipur (120 kms) are the nearest airports to connect Bilaspur.
