

Details of interdisciplinary research

Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya (GGV), Bilaspur promotes and measures interdisciplinary research success within applicable disciplines. The university encourages collaboration across fields through its research centers, interdisciplinary projects, and Ph.D. programs. Success is typically measured by research publications in reputed journals, funded research projects, patents, academic collaborations, and the societal impact of research work. GGV also emphasizes interdisciplinary approaches in areas like environmental science, social sciences, and applied sciences, aligning with national research priorities. There is a specific formal frameworks for interdisciplinary research evaluation depending on the department or research area. The University has research collaborations with the reputed laboratories of countries including the USA, United Kingdom, Canada, Germany, Austria, France, Italy, Russia, Spain.

Following policy/documents are available

Policy for the promotion of Interdisciplinary research

Best paper awards for research work

Seed research grant policy